Coolidge Running Mate Dis-claims Credit for European Solution

WILL CONTINUE ATTACK

Nominee Carries Campaign Through Minnesota and Into Wisconsin

Dawes Special, Enroute to Chicago From St. Paul, Minn.—Charles G. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice president who headed the experts committee that drafted the European reparations settlement plan, declared the "proposal was successful and is going to be successful simply because the whole world was just about as sick of politicians as the American public is getting to be."

This view was expressed by Mr. Dawes in a campaign address Friday night at St. Cloud, Minn., a German center, where he had been urged to explain the reparations plan and its effect upon Germany. It was his first statement on the plan since he began his speaking campaign as the Republican vice presidential nominee.

Mr. Dawes disclaimed credit for the plan, asserting that "truth compels me to say that, while my name is attached to that report because I was chairman of the committee it was a group effort."

The reference to the reparations settlement was made by Mr. Dawes as a preface to an address in which he continued the attacks on the La Follette independent candidacy that have marked his two-day Minnesota tour. Before leaving St. Cloud early Saturday on the return trip to Chicago, he announced his determination to continue these attacks in the eleven rear platform addresses he is to make Saturday in traveling through southern Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Starting with a speech shortly after breakfast Saturday morning at La Crosse, Minn., Saturday's trip included "minute platform" talks at Wabash and Winona, Minn., and LaCrosse, Sparta, New Lisbon, Portage, Madison, Stoughton, Janesville and Bardwell, Wis.

WIDOW OF PORK PACKER SLAIN BY SON-IN-LAW

Vinton Perin Shoots Prominent Society Woman and Escapes

By Associated Press
Cincinnati, O.—Mrs. Francis D. Rawson, widow of Warren Rawson, pork packer and prominent in society was shot and killed in her palatial home here Friday night. The police immediately started a search for her son-in-law, Vinton Perin, 50, flour miller, who ran from the house after the shooting and disappeared. Miss Nina Rawson, daughter of the dead woman, was shot twice but not seriously injured. Her sister Josephine escaped by fleeing from the home.

Mrs. Deborah Perin, wife of the missing man, and daughter of the dead woman, said her husband left their home in the evening.

As he opened the door he met his son, Vinton Jr., to whom he said: "You'll never see me again. I'm going to Indianapolis." With these remarks he left the house with his handbag and overcoat. Mrs. Perin told the police that before he left they had talked over his dire financial condition after which she had admonished him to be careful. Mrs. Rawson and her two daughters were sitting in the dining room talking when he entered. Without any parley, he demanded money. Mrs. Rawson refused, according to Miss Nina, and Perin asserted he would start a scandal. Miss Rawson said he accused her mother and sister of attempting to make his wife a "slave to a bunch of bum college students."

Without another word, Mrs. Rawson told the police, he fired a shot at her which lodged in her neck and then turned the gun on her mother who was shot in the chest. The third bullet he sent through Miss Rawson's shoulder. Her sister meanwhile had fled through the house and out of the back door. Perin followed immediately and ran in the opposite direction. Josephine was located at the home of a relative in a hysterical condition.

42 DEAD IN STORM, RED CROSS REPORTS

One Hundred and Fifteen Seriously Injured and Many Homes Destroyed

Chicago—Red Cross reports Saturday from five Wisconsin counties stricken by the tornado, show 42 persons dead, 115 seriously injured, 250 homes destroyed and property damage estimated at $500,000. The five counties are Clark, Taylor, Ashland, Oneida and Rusk, of which the first three suffered the greater loss.

These figures were submitted to the central division of the Red Cross Saturday in a telegram from L. M. Mitchell, in charge of Red Cross relief work who wired from Rhineland. Four Red Cross relief workers are in the stricken district.

Walter Davidson, manager of the central division of the Red Cross sent letters to the Wisconsin chapters of the Red Cross inquiring much money is available in their treasury for relief work.

DAVIS' REPLY TO DAUGHERTY WINS SUPPORT

Democratic Presidential Nominee Gained Votes in Northwest By Attack

UPHILL FIGHT FOR CAL

Everyone Agrees There Will Be Changes in Strength Before Election, Claim

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright 1924 by the Post Pub. Co.
Enroute to San Francisco—Coming out of the northwest after a tour of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Washington and Oregon, the presidential contest appears at the moment to have the curious characteristic—hardly anyone agrees that the result, if the election were held tomorrow, would be the same as it will be on election day.

The drift toward the LaFollette-Wheeler ticket was first to get under way. The third party supporters are making more noise and seem to be more active than their opponents. But they have reached their peak in strength. And at the moment that is enough for them to carry virtually all of the northwestern states with the exception of Oregon. It is therefore a question henceforth of LaFollette holding his own against the desperate battle being waged by the Coolidge forces to recover lost ground.

John W. Davis is at present writing third in the race in the states aforementioned but his strength is developing every day. Unquestionably his spirited reply to Harry Daugherty won him votes in this region, for what Davis said is regarded as Rooseveltian in its directness and vehemence.

NEW YORK—The year's most unusual campaigner probably is Sol Levitan.

RADICALS WILL FIGHT TO FINISH, NELSON ASSERTS

La Follette Manager Says Party Can Rely on Socialists in California

Chicago—The La Follette forces in California, denied a separate independent ticket of electors on the California ballot in November will continue to fight to the last ditch, congressional John M. Nelson, national manager of the La Follette forces declared Saturday.

Earlier his office had announced receipt of a telegram from Rudolph Spreckles, regional manager, that lawyers were at work to reopen the case but that referred to the rehearing denied Friday. Mr. Nelson explained later.

"But we're going to fight to the last ditch," Mr. Nelson added. "I don't know what is being done in California today as Mr. Spreckles' telegram referred to yesterday's matters when the California Supreme Court denied a rehearing."

Mr. Nelson added that of course the La Follette organization had the Socialist party to fall back upon inasmuch as the Socialist score supporting LaFollette and can put up LaFollette electors under the Socialist party name on the California ballot.

"It would be more appropriate," a statement from Congressman Nelson's office said "that independent electors should be chosen, but we can assume that the Independent Progressive citizens of California will not hesitate to vote for electors under the Socialist label when a court controlled by partisanship denies them their constitutional rights."

Painted Sticks of Wood Sighted on Lake Are Only Traces of Ship

SEND OUT HYDROPLANES

Sea Was Too Rough to Pick Up Wreckage for Closer Examination, Captain Says

Cleveland, O. — Painted sticks of wood, possibly part of the railing or wheelhouse of the whaleback freighter Clifton, missing since last Sunday, were sighted late Friday, 24 miles northwest of Point Au Fort, Lake Huron. E. R. Schneider, general manager of the Progress Steamship Co., Cleveland owners of the vessel, said Saturday. The sticks of wood painted white were seen by Captain Frank Perew of the steamer Peter White, another of the Progress fleet, but his message to headquarters Saturday said the seas were so rough that he was unable to recover the wood for closer inspection to determine whether it was part of the Clifton.

On receipt of Captain Perew's message, Mr. Schneider requested Selfridge Field flying station, Mt. Clemens, Mich., to send a hydroplane along the shore of Lake Huron in the direction of East Tawas, Mich., in search for further evidence of the foundering of the Clifton.

Hill Heirs Sue Brother For Fortune

New York—Three of the nine surviving children of the late James J. Hill, northwest empire builder, Saturday filed suit against one of their brothers, Louis William Hill, for the return of property which they claimed he obtained from their late mother through "fraud and undue influence."

The suit seeks to have set aside a deed to property in Ramsey-co, Minn., and a conveyance of railroad bonds with an exchange value of $600,000. The plaintiffs are James N. Hill, Mrs. Ruth Hill Beard and Walter J. Hill. A fourth plaintiff is George T. Slade, who married Charlotte Hill. The suit was filed in the supreme court but later was transferred to the United States District Court for trial as the defendant is a resident of Minnesota.

JUDGE BALKS HUBBY'S PLAN TO BE FREED

Pressed by her husband to obtain a divorce so that he might be free, Mrs. Martha S. Marten, Dale, acted upon the urge, but her husband William H. Marten is yet not free.

"Have you got your lawyers yet?" he is alleged to have asked her. "The sooner you get them the better. I'll keep it up until you finish it."

Instead of an absolute divorce, Judge A. M. Spencer in municipal court Friday afternoon ordered a two months separation for the couple. Meanwhile Mrs. Marten retains the custody of three minor children whose ages are 8 years, 6 years and 20 months. She also retains the household goods and is to receive $40 a month alimony.

Mrs. Marten was represented by Attorneys Lonsdorf & Staidt. The husband did not contest the suit. They were married in December 1915.

Possibility of injunction proceedings to restrain the city from paving the alley loomed early this week, but John Dengel who has been the chief opponent of the project said he had no intention of hampering the project. He objected to the grade established by the city engineer, and wanted it two feet higher to accommodate the level of his lot.

W. L. Davis, Returned to Eau Claire from Neenah, Has Narrow Escape

An accident which might have resulted in serious injuries occurred at Pullertons corner, on the Ridge road to Oshkosh, Friday morning, when the Lincoln sedan belonging to W. L. Davis, Eau Claire, was struck by another car and overturned in a ditch. Mr. Davis was driving the sedan, with Miss Eileen Davis in the front seat and Mrs. Davis and a maid, Miss Esther Rantz in the rear. They were returning to Eau Claire after spending the summer at their summer home at Linnell Point, near Neenah. The maid received several cuts on her nose, and Mrs. Davis was so badly shaken up that she was taken to Theda Clark hospital where Dr. S. D. Greenwood has her under observation.

The cheese factory which is on the corner at the fork of the two roads, obstructed Mr. Davis' view so that he could not see the other car which was apparently paying no attention to the road. The latter car struck the Lincoln car in the rear, turning it over, damaging a fender, and breaking several windows.

The rest of the family, with the maid, went on to Eau Claire, leaving Mrs. Davis to rest for a few days.

The Rev. F. L. Schreckenbach has returned home with his family after a vacation spent at Albert City, Ia., Polo, Ill., and Chicago. Services will be held as usual Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

ON THE SCREEN

AMERICA'S MOST DISTINGUISHED ACTOR IN A DISTINGUISHED PHOTOPLAY

An intensely interesting photoplay will be shown at the New Bijou Monday and Tuesday when William Faversham will be seen in The Man Who Lost Himself, a drama which, although based upon a remarkable physical resemblance, nevertheless is both logical and entertaining. Mr. Faversham has been ideally cast as Victor Jones, the stranded seaman who impersonates a dissolute and deceased Englishman of title, and he acts with that reserve and restraint that have made his stage characterizations so popular with the theatre-going public of two continents.

It is such pictures as these that advance the art of the cinema with giant strides and add to the ever-growing clientele who are selecting their screen discrimination. A pretty and unusual love story is interwoven with the plot proper, and Mr. Faversham in these scenes is as charming as he is dominating in the more dramatic passages of the play. Sumptuous settings and a superlative supporting cast combined with an intelligent story excellently directed make The Man Who Lost Himself a more than usually attractive screen entertainment.

VAMP FOOLS SELF ACTRESS BELIEVES

Despite the poet's wise words, we don't weave a tangled web at all when we practice to deceive, according to Eileen Percy, noted actress of the screen. In fact, she says, deception is usually so palpable that it doesn't deceive anyone. That's the way she played her part in "The Turmoil". Hobart Henley's spectacular Universal-Jewel version of Booth Tarkington's famous novel, to be seen commencing Sunday at the Elite for a three day engagement.

"The woman I had to play was a perfect cat," the actress, who is famous for her work in the title role of

"The Flirt," explains. "She was always trying to fool people into the idea that she was a good woman—but she never fooled anyone except herself."

"Take for instance, the scene where she accosts the fiancée of her brother-in-law, played by Eleanor Boardman, and tries to fool her into interfering in family affairs. By side glances and little bits of pantomime I had to show her as steadily trying to fool the other girl—and thinking she'd gotten away with it, until the other walked away from her. But at no juncture could she allow herself to really fool Mary Vertrees—or the audience. It was a complicated role—Mr. Henley worked with me hours on just that one scene—to make it so lifelike that the catfish woman couldn't fool anyone, yet a woman with catfish impulses will keep right on being such despite everything."

BRAINS COUNT AS MUCH AS HANDS TO KEEP WORLD GOING

Chamber of Commerce Speaker Denies Socialistic Theory in Business

Nothing is more damnable than a double standard of values that allows one man to enjoy luxuries that were paid for by deductions from another. Dr. Gus W. Dyer said in his address on "The American Theory of Industry," before the joint meeting of the Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary clubs in the Conway hotel Friday noon. This was the first of a series of eight luncheon and dinner meetings sponsored by the Forum committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Lee C. Rasey, principal of Appleton High school, introduced the speaker.

Dr. Dyer has been a member of the faculty of Vanderbilt university, Nashville, Tenn., for nearly 20 years. Leave of absence for one year has been granted during which he is undertaking a nation-wide speaking tour under the auspices of the National Industrial council, New York.

DOUBLE STANDARD
The keynote of Dr. Dyer's address was his contrast of the American theory of industry and socialism's theory. The socialist would be compensated for what he needs and not for the value of his efforts. All the time he is crying for "a living wage," demanding more, never realizing that when he gets more, it adds to the price of what another pays for the product, thus maintaining the double standard of values.

He said that the cornerstone of the American theory was the freedom of the individual, the right to live his own life, govern himself in religion, business, politics and every day life. Any organization that interfered with this was antagonistic and contrary to Americanism. Much hue and cry is raised against a system whereby one man, the laborer, receives $3 a day, another, a skilled laborer, receives $9 a day, and a third the man who directs the business receives $100 or more a day. "There's nothing wrong with the system," Dr. Dyer maintained, "nothing at all, for each man receives compensation for what he puts forth."

Production is not the result of manual labor, but the result of moving and moving in the right way. Hence, in Dr. Dyer's opinion, production is getting the most for what one has, as "moving in the right way."

BRAINS DON'T COUNT
Socialism's theory, Dr. Dyer said, is that production is primarily the product of the hands. This theory, he went on, gives little place to intellect. And the result of this preaching is the belief that Wall-st is a conspiracy to rob the working man. Dr. Dyer said he was speaking from a working man's point of view when he contested the theory.

The wealth of rich men of the country was not created by the hands of their employees, but by the men themselves. It was created by their ability to move things in the right way. Effort is made continually to destroy capital, but if it were destroyed untold suffering would result. Cut down capital and the price of commodities will increase immediately.

The socialist talks about the government owning industries, but the government owns them right now, the speaker said, and takes what it wants in taxes.

Employers can't fix wages any more than a miller can fix the price of wheat or a textile manufacturer fix the price of cotton. A man chooses his profession and is not forced to work for any sum. In closing the speaker urged that men and women stand by the American theory of industry, which gives them freedom and the privilege of striving for all that is best.

ROGERS ORGANIZES SAXAPHONE BAND

Captain Fred B. Rogers Ready to Form New Musical Organization

Organization of a saxophone band for the Oney Johnston post of the American Legion has been undertaken by Capt. Fred B. Rogers. A survey will be conducted immediately to determine the practicability of such an organization in the community.

The proposed instrumentation includes soprano, alto, tenor, baritone and bass saxophones, drums and piano.

It is planned to obtain an instrumentation of about 30 pieces. The purpose of the organization is to represent the local American Legion post with a musical organization like those of other posts in the states, and to afford individual saxophone players an opportunity for advancement in ensemble playing. It is not desired to compete with any existing musical organization, it is said.

Saxophone players living in or near Appleton are invited to meet at Army G at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening, Sept. 30, to take preliminary steps in organizing the band. Others of musical experience who desire to take up the study of saxophones and are willing to equip themselves with instruments, also are invited. Those unable to attend the meeting are requested to communicate with Capt. Rogers.

THE CALIFORNIA DECISION

Politics makes not only strange bed-fellows, as in the case of Davis and Bryan, but it makes strange blunders, as in the case just decided by the California supreme court which enjoins the appearance of La Follette electors on the presidential ticket of that state. The decision is on a technicality, the court holding that a presidential elector is merely the agent of a political party operating solely through a political convention, and that his name cannot be placed upon the ballot by a petition but only through the agency of a party convention.

It is true that for the orderly conduct of government certain machinery must be provided and certain formalities required by law. We think, however, in this instance the court has leaned backward in interpreting formalities. Mr. La Follette is a candidate for president. His name, or rather electors pledged to his candidacy, are entitled to go on the ballot of each state. A party has been organized known as the Independent Progressive party. To all intents and purposes it is as much a party as the Republican or Democrat. What ever doubt there might be regarding a technical construction of the law should have been resolved in favor of the La Follette electors, and there was a doubt because the court divided four to three.

The effect of this decision can only be to strengthen the candidacy of Mr. La Follette. One of the things he is preaching against is the alleged tyranny of judicial power, and there can be little doubt that the decision of the California court is partisan, or at least results from a prejudiced political mind. We should have the fullest freedom in elections in this country, and it is a violation of political freedom to deny the independent ticket its right in California, or in any other state. The Republicans are likely to regret this decision before the campaign is over.

AIRSHIPS AND BATTLESHIPS

Military strategists still hold capital ships in highest respect. As they are experts, their opinion merits the most serious consideration. But the feat of the American aviators in flying round the world demonstrated what machines of the air can do. Their possibilities as destroyers are tremendous.

The government should experiment extensively with airships. Its investments, through the navy department, in aircraft will be of benefit not only from a military but of a commercial standpoint. The world flyers have given us some idea as to what can be accomplished by aerial navigation and transport. Nowadays when we think of war we think of peace.

BUSINESS LOOKING UP

The iron and steel industry, which leads the way for all other business activities, is slowly but steadily climbing back toward full-time operations. The gain in pig iron production in August was only 6 per cent over the July output, but it was the first check to the drop that started late in March. With the national election out of the way, times are likely to improve noticeably. The iron and steel industry not infrequently leaps upward with rather amazing speed. In August 1922, pig iron output had dropped to 1,846,170 tons. In four months it was up past 3,000,000 tons. That may happen again in iron and steel—and in general business.

There are plenty of business rainbows in the sky. Election will soon be over.

The steel industry is on the upgrade. Europe, having finally settled the reparations problem (for a time, at least), should convalesce faster; this, in turn, should stimulate American business. The farmer is in better shape, his buying power gradually being restored. Business failures recently have been the lowest of the year. Railroad freight loadings have been running the highest of the year to date. Altogether, it is an encouraging outlook.

WILLIAM OF POTSDAM

Compared with his former splendor the present mode of living of the exiled German kaiser, Wilhelm, is extremely simple. He has been receiving $10,000 a month, this year, from the republic in temporary, financial settlement of his property interests in the Fatherland. As he divides this money among his five sons, and his brother, Prince Henry, and his cousin Prince Friederich Leopold, he doubtless fancies that living on $120,000 a year is existing in poverty.

The kaiser could, if he would, be happier as a private citizen than as emperor. The republic will buy his many lands and castles, and he can enjoy an ease as a retired capitalist, with no matters of state to trouble him. The republic signifies that he will be allowed to keep several of his minor castles and residences in and near Potsdam. Does this mean that William will be permitted to return to Germany?

"LIBERTY" IN RUSSIA

The soviet is the people's government. In order to instruct and entertain the people it has at last authorized use of the radio. The regular annual license is fixed at three dollars, but for workmen, who are mostly communists, it is $1.50, while for officers and soldiers of the Red army it is only fifty cents a year. The public is not permitted to receive anything by wireless except that which the government itself broadcasts. The public is prohibited from listening in on information intended for the press or from picking up matter disseminated from foreign stations.

Liberty in Russia is exemplified by the government's decree regarding use of the radio. The public may listen to what the bureaucratic government broadcasts, but to nothing else. In the soviet system the government is all and public is nothing. The government takes a paternal interest in the public by censoring, prescribing and dictating for the government's own good—not for the good of the people.

BECAUSE

THERE'S always a reason for everything, yet there's one satisfaction we never can get. The womenfolk gather and chatter and buzz. You ask why they do it—the answer "because." The Misus refuses to join you at lunch and what is the reason? You haven't a hunch! You wonder and fret like the average man does. You say, "please explain," and she answers, "because." A dapper young fellow will grow a mustache though he knows that the thing will look perfectly rash. Politely you ask him the cause of the fuzz. But he just doesn't know, so he answers "because." Whenever you're stuck on a question folks ask, don't feel that answer's a terrible task. When quizzed as to why, — well, just take it from me, just answer "because" and you're safe as can be. Perhaps you will wonder with reason enough, just why a man writeth this lingo of stuff. The answer should clear me—I hope that it does—and the honest reply to the question's "because."

CANNING WITHOUT ENBALMING

A great number of correspondents have asked whether a canning compound having the formula given below is injurious to the health of the consumer of peas, corn and other vegetables for the preservation of which it is added.

The canning compound consists of boric acid 95 per cent, sodium chlorid (common salt) 4.763 per cent, benzoate of soda .001 per cent, and water or moisture .237 per cent.

It is certainly an expensive way to buy salt. As far as the other ingredients are concerned, when you've taken out the boric acid they're just scenery.

Boric acid isn't so very expensive when purchased under its true name. But is it a wholesome thing to eat under any name?

The canning compound would make a fairly safe eye wash or gargle or antiseptic solution, and when used in canned peas it might come in handy to have such solutions mixed with the peas, the way some people eat 'em.

I have a vague recollection of an awful rocking of the earth back in the days of my youth by some kind of congressional investigation they staged at Washington over the question of whether or not it was a good plan to embalm canned food with some such chemical, and while the health authorities didn't feel enthusiastic about doping up the food with chemicals of other gentlemen's embalmings, the embalmers trust finally decided that it would be all right to dope the canned stuff just a wee bit, not enough to kill the average consumer outright, and then come right out honestly and boldly and tell on the label, in letters visible under the low power lens, what kind of poison you've used in the food. The people of this country will stand for almost anything like that.

Now take catchup. If I recollect the battle raged fiercely around catchup, whether to embalm it or just bottle it and let the consumer take his chances with it. Today people who run to the grocery for their catchup know that a good article keeps all right without any embalmings. Most people understand that if the tomatoes are fresh and clean at the time they are used, they'll keep all right with ordinary canning and it is the half spoiled tomatoes that need embalming to prevent them from spoiling altogether in the can.

A housekeeper who does her own canning of vegetables or fruit ought to have enough gumption and common sense to know that if the fruit or vegetable to be canned is in proper condition, and if the canning process is right, there is no need for the use of any chemical or dope to preserve the food.

Boric acid is comparatively nonpoisonous—that is the very reason why we recommend it so much as a household antiseptic. But while an occasional dose of it may not upset the system seriously, the frequent, constant or habitual eating of boric acid in small quantities tends to depress one's spirits and weaken the circulation and bring on coma.

So I should advise housekeepers to consult the coroner about the use of canning compound for preserving vegetables.

Saturday Sermon

(The following sermon entitled, "Sacred Altars," was prepared for the Post-Crescent by the Rev. H. A. Bernhardt, pastor of Emmanuel Evangelical church.)

"Thine altars, O Lord of Hosts, My King and my God, Ps. 84:3

The altar was a raised structure generally erected for the purpose of worship and sacrifice. The literal meaning of the word is, a place of slaughter or sacrifice. There are at least two kinds of altars spoken of in the Scriptures. The first was an altar consisting of earth or unhewn stone. It had no fixed shape, but varied with the materials. It might consist of a rock or a single large stone or a number of stones. These might be termed "lay-altars" since the law permitted laymen to offer certain sacrifices without the assistance of the priests. The second grouping of altars includes those with horns, fixed measurements and more or less fixed materials.

The first altar of which we have any account in the Scriptures dates back to the time of Noah. It was built upon his leaving the ark. Out of gratitude for God's mercy and protection this man of God erected a family altar and brings a thanksgiving offering and Jehovah pronounced a certain blessing upon that first group of family worshippers and gave the promise that never again should the ground be cursed and all the people be destroyed. Later we find Abraham coming into the land of Canaan building altars where he sojourned. Doubtless the most noted of the altars erected by Abraham was the one on Mt. Moriah, erected for the offering up of his own son. I believe that no altar was ever built with more and greater care than this altar.

With every stone he must have breathed a prayer. When ready to offer his son, when ready to stretch forth his hand, lo, a voice from heaven speaks, "Abraham, lay not thine hand upon the lad, for now I know that thou fearest God seeing thou hast not withheld thy son." If you want angel visitants, you will find them on the mountain at the sacred altar of God.

Memorials of Goodness
We could tell of other sacred altars recorded in the Bible. However these altars have all passed away. They tell of the zeal and devotion, the earnestness of men of God of old. They are sacred memorials of the goodness, mercy and love of God to His people. They were also visible means whereby the people gave their offerings unto Jehovah and came into fellowship and communion with Him. They may stand as a true type of the christian life of today.

Every christian ought also to have an altar, even a private altar where he may bring his sacrifice of prayer and devotion to God. There is nothing to take its place in our lives. There are things in our lives that call for an adjustment between us and God alone. That private altar of prayer may be made a source of true power, a hidden spring of life that makes us what we ought to be in the Kingdom of God. Prayer at its best is always secret. Then it is most real. Then it is deepest. The deep things of the soul are best shared with God alone. Of the Christ it is said, "He was there alone," namely in prayer.

Need Home Altar
Next to our private altar is the family altar. This it seems to me is

MATT SCHMIDT & SON
TWO FLOORS OF GOOD THINGS TO WEAR

Indispensable in the home. What a blessing would it not be to have a family altar in every church home! What an uplift to the church and community! The family altar has been a wall of fire around many a young person after leaving the parental roof to go out to face the battles and temptations of life. Joshua said: "As for me and my house we will serve the Lord." The revival of old time home religion is our great need today. It is the fundamental need of the church and society. As goes the home, so goes the church, and as goes the church, so goes the community, and one need not expect the church or the community to be better than the average home composing it. Let us take time to be holy. Paul speaks most beautifully of the church in the house of Aquila and Priscilla. That is the place where it ought to begin to secure the very best results. There is no church so effective in the restraining the seductive, modern social evils as the church in your house. The parents are the priests in that home. They minister to the Lord for the family. A holy influence goes out from such a place that moulds character from the cradle to the grave. Then there is also the altar of public prayer. I mean the weekly prayer service of the church. It is the power house of the church. If a church is strong here it is sure to succeed. There are the public religious gatherings of many kinds. You will not keep your spiritual life fresh and vital when you neglect to assemble yourselves as the manner of some is.

There is promise of another altar is God's word. John the beloved, had a view thru the rift in the clouds into the home beyond this vale of tears and there saw, "the golden altar which is beyond the throne of God." By and by the golden sun will set beyond the purple hills and the shadows will round about us creep. Earth's cares and tears will have ended and the Master will bid His messengers to call the workers from labor to reward. Oh, the bliss of that moment, when we shall be ushered into His presence and see Him face to face! What rapture when the music of the harps with thousand strings shall swell the balmy breeze and the heavens ring with celestial songs! This then the angel with the golden banner with much incense shall offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar and the blood-washed throng will join and ascribe majesty and glory and honor and power to Him that sitteth upon the throne forever and ever. Amen.

LA FOLLETTE AND RAILROADS

Editor Post-Crescent: I have read with considerable interest the fact that the La Follette campaign committee intends to raise over $500,000.00 in Wisconsin for Bob's presidential fight. This, of course, is in the interest of us poor down-trodden people, and consequently it is not misdeed, or a crime, as it would be if the Republicans or Democrats tried to raise that much in this state.

I have also read an article by Scruator, of the Chicago Tribune, showing the danger to organized labor by connecting up with the radical movement.

About September 15th, this same writer had an article in the Tribune showing that while our Progressive friends say that the railroads are making a enormous profit because the 5 1/2 per cent profit allowed under the law is figured on proper stock, plus all the water that the railroad stock contains, the government reports show that as the values are coming in on the 1914 basis, they are about 38 per cent above the book value as shown by the railroads. This would indicate clearly that if there ever has been water in the stock, and there no doubt has been, it has been very much absorbed and the railroads are now under-capitalized so far as their actual values are concerned.

Furthermore, while neither you nor I, nor any of the rest of us Progressives would care to go back to 1914 as a basis of our calculations, the railroads are obliged to do so, and undoubtedly they could earn a living if they were not continually hampered by laws and regulations necessary only to keep our dear friends in office.

It is an interesting sidelight that whereas when La Follette sponsored the law somewhere around 1914, he stated that the whole cost of physical valuation of the railroads would cost about $2,400,000.00. It has cost us so far approximately $100,000,000.00, which you and I and the rest of us Progressives, including the standpaters also, are paying in taxes. Of course, Mr. La Follette has not mentioned physical valuation since he found out that he was such a bum guesser.

Yours very truly,

More than 30 clubs and societies were represented at the luncheon. The talks by Mrs. S. C. Shannon, Miss Lucy Helen Pearson and Mrs. L. C. Sleeper were much the same as those at the men's meeting last week. Shannon told some interesting facts about the club including the fact that within a year the club has paid off all but $2,500 debt on the club property. When the place was purchased the club had about $4,000 in the building fund and raised $5,000 additional from its members. Of the $5,000 borrowed at a local bank half has been paid within a year. Mrs. Shannon said that she hoped the rest would be paid off this year.

Miss Pearson told of the way in which Appleton Womans club hopes to act as a clearing house for all community work. She told the clubs that she hoped that all would avoid duplication of effort where it is possible. It is the aim of the club to have every organization keep its own individuality but all to work together for the city. This will be made possible with all taking an interest in the larger organization which is existing for service to all.

Mrs. Sleeper told of the work of the recreation department. She called the special attention of the women to the class in sewing which will specialize in making lingerie, to the morning gymnasium class which is warranted to make thin women fat and fat women thin, to the women's orchestra and to the reading class which will take up current and classic fiction. She urged the women to tell their friends to feel free to take any work which they wished to in the recreation department. It is not the intention of the club, she said, to reserve recreation for the young women.

Miss Pearson offered the services of the club bulletin to all other clubs who wished to have a special notice reach a large number of women. She asked that the time and place of meetings of all other clubs be sent to her so that they may be given space in the bulletin. Many of the women gave this information for the club paper before leaving. Through making arrangements for the luncheon, Miss Pearson compiled a list of organizations in the city with the names of their presidents. This information and the time of meeting will be kept in a permanent card index and is available to any one who has occasion to use it.

Baby's Health

CHILDREN'S BUREAU, U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

PLAYING WITH THE BABY
A few minutes of gentle play now and then will not harm the normal baby. A young, delicate, or nervous baby needs a great deal of rest and quiet, and however robust the child, much of the play that is commonly indulged in is more or less exciting. It is a great pleasure to hear the baby laugh and crow in apparent delight; but often the means used to produce the laughter, such as tickling, punching or tossing, make him irritable and restless.

The mother should not kiss the baby directly on the mouth, nor permit others to do so, as infections of various kinds are spread in this way. Rocking the baby, jumping him up and down on her knee, tossing him, shaking his head or carriage disturb him, and make more and more dependent upon these attentions. But this is not to say that the baby should be left alone too completely. All babies need "mothering," and should have plenty of it. When the young baby is awake he should frequently be taken up and held quietly in the mother's arms, in a variety of positions, so that no one set of muscles may become overworked. An older child should be taught to sit on the floor or in his pen or crib during part of his waking hours, or he will be very likely to make too great demands upon his mother's strength. No one who has not tried it realizes how much nervous energy can be consumed in "minding" a baby who can creep or walk about, and who must be continually watched and diverted, and the mother who is taking the baby through this period of his life will need to conserve all her strength, and not waste it in useless activity.

SEA BATHING
Although a baby under 2 years should not be given a sea bath, a word of caution about sea bathing for young children may not be amiss. The cruelty with which well-meaning parents treat young, tender children by forcibly dragging them into the surf, a practice which may be seen at any seaside resort in the Summer, can have no justification. The fright and shock that a sensitive child is thus subjected to is more than sufficient to undo any conceivable good resulting from the plunge. On the other hand, a child who is allowed to play on the warm sand and becomes accustomed to the water slowly and naturally will soon learn to take delight in the buffeting of the smaller waves, but he should not be permitted to remain more than a minute or two in the water, and should be thoroughly dried, dressed immediately, and not left to run about the beach in wet clothing.

To The Mothers of Appleton
If any mother with a baby under one year of age has not received a copy of that beautiful and authoritative book, "Baby's Health" call upon the Appleton Post-Crescent, or any members in Appleton of the Baby's Health Association and a copy will be given free.

The play was directed and put on by the Zura Producing Co. and was started scarcely a week ago. The acting which was developed in such a short time was quite remarkable.

GOOD ROADS AID ELECTRICAL UNITS OF AUTOMOBILES

Shaking and Jarring Loosens Battery, Case, Generator, and Wiring on Cars

Several eminent physicians have within the recent past come forward to express their opinions to the effect that the great increase in motoring on the part of the general public has brought increased health and has added several years to Mr. Average Man's length of life. This, too, in spite of a naturally increasing number of accidents incident to driving of automobiles.

"But back of this daily increasing number of people who are riding in automobiles is the fact that good roads are daily making the motor car a more enjoyable means of recreation and transportation," says Mr. Schroeder, local Willard service station dealer.

"The day is still within the memory of a great many when an automobile was something of a mixed blessing. Only the rich were favored with the advantage of jolting and jarring over bumpy, rutty roads. It was then considered a luxury to be able to boast that you made a 500 mile trip without any trouble except a couple of blowouts, a broken spring, a burnt out connecting rod and a few such trifles.

"Poor roads have had a lot to do with the number of stalled motorists who have enriched garages by towing fees in the past. When a tire blew out, the driver could sweat and swear and fix it or limp in, but the most common trouble in the past has been with the electrical system of automobiles. Few drivers were, or are now, for that matter, any good when trouble developed within the electrical machine. And it was here that the poor roads got in their most evil work.

"The constant shaking, jarring, jolting and vibrating could not but loosen battery hold-downs in time, though battery manufacturers have done all in their power to offset this trouble. Loose connections just would develop under such conditions. Battery posts would work loose, no matter how firmly the battery was built, cases would be jarred to destruction in spite of expert building. Wiring from the generator often worked loose so that the battery receiving no charge would go dead."

There are any number of small and really minor troubles that developed in the electrical system which if repaired at once meant little inconvenience. But the average driver knew nothing at all about such mysteries.

In fact the electrical system is today a mystery to most car owners, but one which they are not usually obliged to solve because of the large number of battery and electrical stations that are readily accessible and because good roads are lessening the troubles on this score.

"Good roads are increasing battery life as well as making for increased health and comfortable riding."

GOOD MAXWELL LEADS FOURS IN VALUE AND BEAUTY

Chrysler's Association Gives Maxwell Exceptional Corp. of Engineers

The good Maxwell chassis has in the past three years undergone a steady and sound mechanical development. The result is that no four-cylinder motor car of anywhere near the price can match the good Maxwell in performance, and certainly no four can equal it in value.

The fact that Walter P. Chrysler has now brought his name into definite association with the good Maxwell is a significant and a direct result of the high position that the good Maxwell has attained as an outstanding engineering work.

Those in the industry who know Mr. Chrysler best, realize that he would not and could not connect his name with anything less than a superior product. His statements concerning the good Maxwell, then, can be taken as certification of Maxwell merit in design and construction.

The same progressive but solidly wise treatment that has been active to make the good Maxwell a car of finer performance, has recently been converted to the development of new beauty, finer appearance.

From the very first the good Maxwell attracted attention because of its striking, yet dignified grace of line. Now it is beautified and refined to a higher degree; the generous use of nickel trimmings, the addition of color at just the right spots, the finer and more attractive fittings, the special equipment, intensify the inherent grace of each of the six body types.

South Side Garage Selling Rollin Cars

The Rollin is a balanced car. Lines, appearance, appointments are balanced by remarkable list of new engineering features. Style has not been sacrificed for stability, nor stability for style. The small bore, high compression European type motor has speed, pick-up, plus rugged reserve for all hills. And in addition, proven economy performance of from 25 to 30 miles to the gallon of gasoline.

A scientifically balanced four-bearing crankshaft and other precision parts eliminate vibration, yet built into the chassis is strength and stamina aplenty and to spare. It, too, being low hung, is balanced to the road. You may not buy beauty alone, not merely a finely constructed frame, not merely a motor of power and performance, but all these and other advanced values built together and balanced as one—in the Rollin.

The Rollin is a car of beauty. The dignified simplicity of its body lines are blended with just enough of a sport tendency to add piquancy and charm to its rich appearance as a whole. Like the thoroughbred that it is, its inner qualities match its smart exterior, upholstery, appointments and conveniences. Its quickly noted ease of riding is due to the new transverse rear springs suspension and to Firestone full balloon cord tires. And for utmost safety there is the modern system of mechanical internal expanding, four-wheel brakes.

Whether your preference be for a Touring Car a smart Coupe, or a fashionable Sedan, you will get the last word in magnificent bodies, appropriately beautiful fittings, convenience and rare comfort—in the Rollin.

OLDSMOBILE ADOPTS WIDE COLOR RANGE

To meet the demands by the growing and diversified uses which the two passenger coupe type of automobile is successfully filling, the Oldsmobile Works, Lansing, Mich., has started to produce the coupe in a variety of color finishes. At the present time the factory is finishing two coupes in shades of blue, maroon and brown, and it is probable that other colors will be added in the near future. In each case Duco, chosen for its satin finish and durability, is used.

Several sound business reasons have prompted the adoption of a wide color range in the finish of this general utility Oldsmobile model. Investigation has shown, factory officials report, that the two passenger coupe is used more universally for business purposes than any other body type, and that its use in this field is of the widest possible range. A survey of sales records shows that it is one of the most favored models for physicians, lawyers, clergymen, commercial representatives, business men who drive to their offices from suburban homes, and wives who desire the independence of a car of their own affairs for shopping, visiting, etc., regardless of whether husband has the family car down town or not.

So diversified a sales field as this has created a demand for cars finished in different colors. The deep, rich blue which recently was adopted as the standard color or practically all models Oldsmobiles, has proven the greatest favorite, particularly among women and professional men.

Business houses which supply their travelers with automobile transportation have shown a preference for cars finished in "some distinctive shade," say factory officials, and this growing field or the sale of two passenger coupes has eagerly taken to the new color finishes.

The Oldsmobile business coupe is also trimmed inside to the option of the buyer. For those who intend using the car for commercial purposes, a grey Spanish Fabrikoid upholstery is used, while for those desiring more elegance, the car is upholstered in velours.

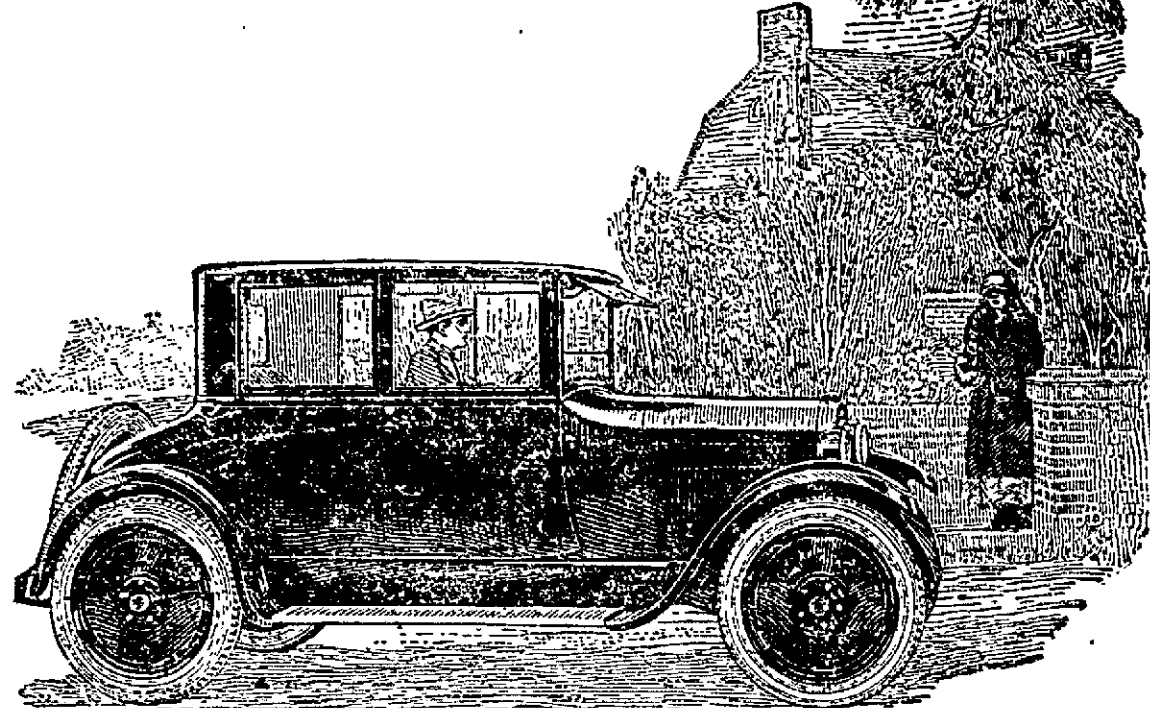

Features that are reported to have made the two passenger coupe a favorite in business, professional and home circles are its comfort in all weather, and its roomy passenger space and large luggage carrying capacity, the locking compartment under the rear deck containing 13 cubic feet of space and that in back of the seat, five cubic feet.

TWO TRAINLOADS OF BUICK CARS SHIPPED TO FOREIGN SHORES

Granting that the automobile business is a fair barometer of general commercial conditions and certainly we have found it so at home, the comeback of Europe is going to be much quicker than even the most optimists have dared to hope, says E. T. Strong, General Sales Manager of the Buick Motor Company.

The sale of Buick cars certainly sets at naught the almost uniform predictions that Europe's prosperity was to come well into the future and only after some very carefully planned and well executed economic stimulations.

J. T. McCANN CO. TO HOLD HUDSON-ESSEX SHOW ANOTHER WEEK

Enthusiastic, indeed, is the interest being shown in the J. T. McCann Co. Special Fall Exhibition and Demonstration Week of Hudson and Essex closed cars and it has been decided to carry the event for another week.

Mr. McCann declared that with 100,000 cars sold nationally in the first eight months of 1924 Hudson-Essex had gone ahead of every other six cylinder make. Locally and currently, the Special Exhibition and Demonstration Week has brought Hudson-Essex a world of favored comment and added materially to September sales.

"This is the logical season for an automobile show," said Mr. McCann. "Every important manufacturer has now displayed to the public his latest and presumably his best effort to meet the public's likes. The purchaser of an automobile never before had so wide a choice of new cars."

"With this situation prevailing we determined to put on an automobile show in our salesrooms, showing Hudson and Essex cars as they are today. We have arranged a complete showing of Essex Coaches, Hudson Coaches and Hudson Sedans.

"Autumn is of course outstandingly the season of enclosed cars. That brings us to the connection of Hudson-Essex and closed models. There are today two types of large selling closed cars—coaches and sedan. Hudson invented and developed them both. Hudson has always felt an especial interest in enclosed models. It built and named the first sedan in the world back in 1912.

"In 1921, as the world knows, Hudson-Essex recognized the public's demand for an enclosed car at an open car price, and brought out the Coach. Hudson-Essex is now the largest builder of six cylinder closed cars in the world and has had three years' experience in perfecting them. These closed cars are shown at our exhibit. The truly striking performance ability of the Essex and Hudson we are demonstrating these days to scores of motorists."

factories during the third week of September, one on the 15th and another on the 20th.

While the shipment of trainloads of automobiles for export will undoubtedly be a surprise to many it is rather a common thing with the Buick. During the month of August, for instance, five trainloads of Buicks left the factories for exporting points, and trainload shipments for September will no doubt surpass the month of August.

Aside from Italy and France where unfavorable tariffs practically prohibit the sale of any American made cars, there seems to be no one spot in the world where Buick cars are not being purchased: England, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru, Bolivia, Colombia, Venezuela, Cuba, Porto Rico, Central America, Mexico, Hawaiian Islands, Philippine Islands, Japan, China, Java, Sumatra, Norway, Sweden, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Switzerland, Spain, Portugal, Greece, Serbia, India, Australia, and South Africa. To all these points and others, many of them little thought of in our daily life, shipments of Buick cars are constantly on their way. At home, too, Buick sales volume reflects a prosperous condition of business and commerce, another indication that the world is rapidly recovering its business stride. Nations and individuals alike rally quickly, and as they rise, turn to the purchase of necessities. That they buy American motor cars in large quantities is a tribute to American industry.

MOON ROADSTER IS A BEAUTIFUL CAR

1925 Model Has Duco Satin Finish, Balloon Tires and Hydraulic Brakes

The new Moon Roadster, in satin finished Duco, is one of the most attractive open cars that has been announced this season. It is exceptionally well designed, with long, sweeping body lines, beautiful grey or two-tone tan Duco finish, and blue Spanish leather upholstery. The latest production of the Moon plant is a very stylish automobile with plenty of power, speed and endurance and with unusual capacity for a car of its type.

Genuine, full-sized balloon tires, four wheel hydraulic brakes and a new and more efficient steering gear for the balloon tire equipment, is standard equipment on the new roadster at no extra cost.

The body dimensions of this new car were so skillfully worked out that, although the car is extremely low, it is generously proportioned with plenty of leg room and head clearance. The roadster is 161 inches long, has ample room for three adult passengers in the driver's compartment. Additional passenger capacity of the ordinary roadster.

The rumble seat is a very comfortable full cushioned seat, accommodating two passengers, and is upholstered in blue Spanish leather to match the other upholstery of the car. The rumble seat is a very welcome feature, being especially useful for accommodating additional passengers when a trip to the golf links or to the country club or other occasions requires.

When the deck lid is down, all evidence of the rumble seat disappears, and to all appearance it is a roadster of conventional seating capacity. Two aluminum steps, one at the rear of each side of the car, afford easy entrance and exit from the rumble seat and add a pleasing sport effect to the car.

The roadster is upholstered in blue Spanish leather which harmonizes with the grey or tan body color. The well tailored cape top, the distinctive Moon design silvered radiator, nickel cow lamp, nickel windshield stanchions, and aluminum toe plates and steps and numerous other refinements and master touches make of a car of unusual beauty and has made it one of the most popular cars in the Moon 1925 line.

WALTER P. CHRYSLER'S WEEKLY TRAFFIC TALKS

IF FOUND IN COURT
W. Bruce Cobb, associate magistrate, traffic court, New York, offers this advice to the motorist who finds himself in court:

"Don't be afraid to speak up distinctly in court. If you are guilty, say so and briefly state any explanation or excuse. Usually in a simple case, strict attention to what the court says and the aid that the court will give you and your witness will enable you to present your defense without a lawyer.

"If you feel annoyed by the decision, remember that it is not always easy to do exact justice. If you feel especially outraged, don't show your contempt for the court; conceal it. If necessary, appeal. But, most of all, don't let any unfortunate court experience of your own turn you into an enemy of traffic enforcement."

DODGE BROTHERS REDUCE PRICES ON SPECIAL TYPE CARS

In view of the upward trend in automobile prices, considerable surprise was occasioned by Dodge Brothers' recent announcement of a reduction in prices of their special type cars.

Dodge Brothers were able to do the unexpected, according to the factory announcement, on account of the increased volume of their purchases of special equipment for the special type cars.

Dodge Brothers special types consist of the standard cars equipped with accessories which produce the utmost in comfort and convenience and appearance of the car. Among these are steel disc wheels, five balloon type tires, nickel-trimmed radiator, nickel plated bumpers, automatic windshield wiper, rear view mirror, scuff plates, cow lights and motorometer with lock. A special body stripe is also provided.

Manufacturing and buying these accessories in quantity, Dodge Brothers are naturally able to install them at prices considerably below what the owner would have to pay at retail. The public was quick to sense this and demand for the special types grew steadily from the moment they were made available. Their convenience and appearance has elicited the greatest admiration everywhere and those who know the volume that has been attained can readily understand how Dodge Brothers were able to make a reduction when others were announcing advances.

Four Dodge Brothers cars are affected by the reduction—the special Touring Car, special Roadster, special "A" Sedan, and special 4-passenger Coupe. The "B" Sedan and the Business Coupe have also been added to the line of special types.

As the reduction was made possible by economies effected in the purchase of equipment used exclusively on the special type cars, the standard types are in no way affected, according to The Walter P. Chrysler Co., local dealer. The prices of all standard types remain unchanged.

man may be reckless. Regardless of the right of way rule for your locality:

Give the right of way to a street car between cross streets.
Give the right of way to fire fighting vehicles and to ambulances.
Give the right of way to police and emergency vehicles.
Give the right of way to the pedestrian who has reached your line of intersection.

SAFETY ALWAYS PAYS

A good rule for the motorist is never to start to turn around or swing sharply to the right or left without knowing there is no car coming up back of you.

If parked at curb don't start until you have looked back.
Never take your eye off the road. You must allow your friends riding with you to enjoy the scenery. You have a real job on your hands.

If you don't think it necessary to exercise more than ordinary precaution ask the man who has been in an automobile accident how it feels.

NOTICE!
All Bids for the Contract for building of our new building must be in our hands not later than Tuesday, Sept. 30 at 8 P. M.

RAIN, DIRT, COLD IS HARD ON BATTERY

In Time Dirty Water on Battery Will Cause Lighting and Starting Trouble

Rainy weather is kind of tough on storage batteries and this is especially true in the autumn when there is a great deal of rain and occasionally a frosty night or two.

The battery, tucked away under the floor boards is in a fine position to get a shower bath of dirty water from hit one. Eventually the water degrades puddles every time the wheels post a film of dirt over the top of the cells which works up between the terminal connections unless they are tight.

"While no serious damage will result from an accumulation of dirt on top of the battery," says Mr. Al. Schroeder, Willard dealer here, "the dirt is not doing the battery any good either. Eventually a blue-green and yellow deposit will form around the terminals and cause starting and lighting trouble and may even necessitate replacement of the parts effected unless proper care is taken to keep the connections tight, free from corrosion and properly greased."

"Failure to care for these minor details will not prove expensive as far as repair bills are concerned," claims Mr. Al. Schroeder, "but it is well to avoid the annoyance of being caught with an inoperative battery, regardless of how simple and inexpensive it is to fix it again."

CHEVROLET COACH PROVING POPULAR

The Chevrolet Motor Company announces a new model to its line—the Chevrolet Coach, which will be the lowest priced coach on the market.

This Chevrolet Coach, however, differs from most of the coaches on the market in that the rear panels are steel clear to the top, like the other Chevrolet closed models, and is finished in black with gold stripe—the same as the Chevrolet Sedan.

The door on each side is exceptionally large allowing for easy entrance and exit, while the wide windows, two on each side, afford an extreme range of vision during all seasons and refreshing ventilation in warm weather. The rear quarter windows are the same as the door windows.

The interior of the Coach is large and roomy, with the driver's seat stationary and a folding seat to the right of the driver. The rear seat across the back has ample room for three.

The seats, and cushions are upholstered in striped taupe wool cloth, while the sides, doors and head-lining are in a mottled taupe of the same material. There is a floor carpet to match.

Door windows, as well as side windows are raised and lowered by Terman window regulators. There is a dome light in the car. The rear window in the car is wide and deep and is equipped with a satin curtain. A metal sun visor comes as standard equipment.

REO CHASSIS USED ON EXPENSIVE CAR

What is said to be the most costly car in the world is built on a Reo Taxicab chassis. This automobile, is a traveling electric sign board, advertising a motion picture play. The unique features of the car are too numerous to mention, but here are a few of the outstanding ones: Three auxiliary gasoline motors beside the regular engine; one to run the calliope, the brass pipes of which may be seen behind the glass of the middle door; one which runs a small generator which lights the "flashes" around the top of the car and one four cylinder motor which operates a 110 volt generator which in turn operates the main sign, an electric fan, a heater, and reading lights. A radio completes the electrical equipment of the automobile. The drawing room in the rear of the car is very beautifully upholstered in blue leather, and at night by rearranging the furniture, turns into a very clever boudoir with a "shower bath" and everything. The wheels are also a special feature, being solid hickory disc wheels, and are equipped with balloon tires. The car has already completed the first lap of its journey, from Los Angeles to San Francisco, the last stop on coast is Seattle and from there the traveling sign goes East and hopes to wind up in New York. The car is owned by Burr-Nickle Productions and is traveling in the interest of the company's new picture, "The Land of Whispering Hope."

MONEY ORDER EXCHANGE STARTED WITH FINLAND

Direct exchange of international money orders between the United States and Finland will go into effect on Oct. 1. Hitherto the money orders exchanged between people of both countries have been drawn as "Swedish," and paid through an intermediary agency in Sweden. Hereafter payment will be made in Finland by means of orders reissued in the exchange office at Helsinki where the amounts will be converted into foreign currency at the approximate rate of exchange prevailing on the date of arrival of the list in which the orders are certified. Money orders sent from Finland to the United States also will be reissued on a similar basis at the New York office of exchange.

DEMAND FOR HUNTING LICENSES IS UNABATED

The opening of the duck hunting season last week did not produce a lull in the demand for hunting licenses. Requests are coming in daily at the office of John E. Hantschel, county clerk, as well as at the substations authorized to sell licenses. The clerk has sold 650 licenses, and books containing 750 licenses have already been given out to the substations. Requests for more books are being received daily. The demand is expected to increase gradually until the deer hunting season in November. Thus far only 25 deer tags have been sold in the clerk's office, but 200 of these have been placed on sale at the substations in the county.

Keeping Comfy while Dad's Away

EASY to run and clean to handle—that's the truth about every factory-installed and guaranteed HOME Furnace—

And that's the reason why hundreds of HOME users who have to be away during the week are enthusiastic about the HOME.

The wonderful, breast-high shaker lever and easy-working grates; the big combustion dome that catches all the heat; the ample firepot in which a big, slow fire will burn for hours without attention; and the wonderful chamberless hot blast ring and door that supply superheated air direct to the fireline—

All these and many other advantages help to make the HOME so remarkably easy to handle. The air-tight fire door is of ample size; and it's easy for any one who can shovel coal to care for the HOME.

Then, too, the HOME lightens housework in other ways. It burns all the fuel. Result, heating surfaces and chimney flues clean; no smoke or soot in the house; expensive decorations and draperies preserved; and a big saving in backache and tired muscles.

Every HOME Hot Blast Furnace is installed by experts direct from the factory where it was built. Complete heating satisfaction is therefore guaranteed by the factory. Our five-year heating bond warrants the faithful performance of every HOME Furnace—let our local factory branch tell you about it.

SEIWEIT SERVICE IS FOUNDED ON 28 YEARS EXPERIENCE

Siewert Auto Trimming Shop
Equipped to Meet Public's Demand

Twenty-eight years of actual experience enables William C. Siewert, proprietor of the Siewert Auto Trimming Shop to give the public the best of service in furniture upholstery, awnings, automobile and side curtains. Mr. Siewert formerly was manager of the Appleton Auto Trimming Co. He started in business for himself in 1920, managing a shop on College Ave. In February, 1924, he moved to his present location at 156 Appleton-st.

At present there is a big demand for California tops and glass side curtains. These improvements make the car look like a sedan and feel like a sedan. They make more comfortable riding and improve the looks of the machine.

There also is a large demand for seat-covers, both for open and closed cars. They are a protection both for the seats and the clothing. The purchaser has the choice of the material, but linen is most commonly used.

Furniture is upholstered in the prevailing style. When, for instance, leather goes out of style much furniture is immediately brought in to be reupholstered in the latest fashion. Awnings for all purposes are being made at the Siewert Auto Trimming Shop.

Mr. Siewert always is improving his business and keeping it up-to-date. The latest improvement he has made is the manufacture of glass curtains which contain sliding windows and open with the doors.

Babson Warns Continued Bonding Will Result In Bankruptcy Of People

Babson Park, Mass.—"Whether or not state, county, city and town bonds will continue to be issued as tax exempt securities, only the future can tell; but unless their rate of issue is curtailed, taxes necessary to pay interest and retire them will bankrupt the farmers of this country," said Roger W. Babson in an exclusive interview today.

"The present increase in taxes which results from the demand for these non-taxable bonds is raising havoc with land values, the cost of farm products and rural conditions in general," says the statistician. "Thus far tax exempt municipal bonds have had the best record of any class of securities; but wise investors are now purposely putting a portion of their funds into taxable corporation bonds. They believe that if this wild issuing of state, county and municipal securities continues, tax payers will ultimately revolt and defaults will follow. It's an old proverb: 'Trees do not grow to the skies.' For the same reason taxes cannot continue to increase indefinitely without causing trouble."

"The real cause of this recent increase in such taxes" continued Mr. Babson "is the great increase in road building due of course to automobiles. Automobiles are all right and the industry is here to stay; but we must not go tax crazy. If we do we will kill the goose that is laying the golden eggs. Consider that all roads were

FUTURE OF LUMBER HINGES ON WEATHER

Demand Will Be Stimulated if Corn Crop Can Be Saved

The lumber trade has slowed down perceptibly during September, but the volume is satisfactory to most producers, and the outlook is judged favorable. The consensus within the industry is that no great activity can be expected during the rest of the year, but that the present volume of trade will probably be maintained until weather conditions definitely interfere with outdoor work. This expectation is based on prospects for an increased farm demand during the next two months, which should outbalance the decline in city consumption already noted, says the American Lumberman, Chicago. Present weather conditions have been favorable to the corn crop in most sections of the belt, and it is felt that, if reasonably warm temperatures continue for another three weeks, this crop will turn out considerably better than has been counted on. In this case sentiment among the agricultural population of important consuming sections would be infinitely improved and would be a powerful stimulus to the lumber trade.

The southern pine market meanwhile is being supported by a strong demand for construction items from practically the entire South and the southern half of the middle West. Bookings continue to run slightly in excess of output, and the lack of stock at the mills prevents any pressure of consequence for new business. The only disturbing element is the large number of transit cars being put off by wholesalers following speculative purchases made some time ago. Prices for mill shipment are well maintained, and no early material weakening in these is looked for. There has lately been a number of orders for railroad and car material, but these have not helped the market appreciably, nor are many more in prospect.

MANY SPANISH TEACHERS SEEK BETTER PAID WORK

Madrid—A movement for higher salaries for professors in the universities and technical high schools has been inaugurated in Spain. The professors, it is pointed out by The Liberal, receive an average of 4,000 pesetas annually, or about the same as an ordinary clerk in an office.

When the salaries were fixed the value of 4,000 pesetas was between four and five times as much as today. As a result many professors have been obliged to seek employment elsewhere sufficient on which to live and now are found in all sorts of employment.

SHARP DECLINE IN RAIL MILEAGE IN UNITED STATES

"The mileage of line of steam railways in the United States has declined more than previous estimates have indicated," says the Railway Age. This paper published an editorial in its issue for May 3, pointing out that the statistics of the Interstate Commerce Commission showed a decline between June 30, 1916, and December 31, 1921, of 2,255 miles, an estimated total decline of 3,500 miles in the last eight years.

"The complete statistics of the Commission for the year ended December 31, 1922, which have just been issued, show that this estimate was substantially too low. The decline in mileage in 1922 alone proves to have been 763 miles. This makes a total decline from December 31, 1916, to December 31, 1922, of no less than 3,388 miles. It is probable there has been a further decline since then and that at present there are over 4,000 less miles of railway in the country than there were eight years ago. In other words, the decline in mileage within eight years has been about equal to a railroad from San Francisco to New York and from New York back to Chicago.

The following table shows the mileage in existence on June 30, 1916, and the way it had declined down to the end of 1922:

| Date          | Total Mileage | Decline |
|---------------|---------------|---------|
| June 30, 1916 | 254,251       |         |
| Dec. 31, 1916 | 254,037       | 214     |
| Dec. 31, 1917 | 253,826       | 411     |
| Dec. 31, 1918 | 253,529       | 97      |
| Dec. 31, 1919 | 253,152       | 377     |
| Dec. 31, 1920 | 252,845       | 307     |
| Dec. 31, 1921 | 251,176       | 1,669   |
| Dec. 31, 1922 | 250,413       | 763     |

"It will be noted that the largest decline took place in 1921 and amounted to 1,669 miles. Obviously, the reason for this is that in that year the percentage of net return earned by the railways was the smallest ever earned by them except during the war and the years immediately following when the net return was guaranteed by the government. The decline in the two years 1921 and 1922, in both of which the net return of the railways was extremely low, was 2,432 miles.

OLD PAPERS SHOW HOW MINERS' WAGES GREW

Shamokin, Pa.—The increase in miners' wages during the past 70 years was shown in old papers found when a building was razed here recently. The daily pay in 1853, the old records show, was $1.12 for the average day worker, who now gets $5.40. Opposite the name of one man his pay allowance for a week was $6.75. In those days a week constituted a day trip, two more than the present schedule.

Insulation Of Houses Keeps Fuel Bills Down

Why it pays to look over the house carefully before it is lathed. At this season of the year many new Appleton houses have just reached the critical stage in their construction.

The critical stage comes just prior to the application of lath and plaster. The outside shell is complete, and the walls are about to be closed up for the life of the house.

At this stage of home construction one can still see every studding and every ceiling joist. All the electrical connections are in place, but exposed to view. The heat insulation, too, that material that will protect the house against the cold in winter and the heat in summer, is applied but exposed to view in all outside walls and between the roof and rafters.

"The thick felt like material that is lathed in between the 2 x 4s in the outside walls is put there to keep out the heat and cold. It is a heat insulator or 'thermal' insulation," known as "PLANKLINUM." This material is 1/2 inch thick. It is made from the purified flax fibre, the same rough, durable material from which men's made. This flax fibre is felted into thousands of "dead" air cells. These little air cages act as a heat stop in the walls and roof. In winter heat cannot escape. In summer it cannot enter.

The coal bill is perhaps the biggest single item in the upkeep of a home. Few are the five and six room homes that are heated for a year on less than 11 tons of coal. The average consumption is nearer to 14 tons.

Yet many people do not realize that the manner of planning and building a house controls this coal bill, at least to a large degree. It is known and demonstrated daily that of two houses exactly similar in design and exposure, one will burn 30 to 40 per cent more coal than the other. The difference is in the house, not the furnace. One house is well built. It is insulated against the cold. In its walls and roof there is a half inch thick insulation, built in between the studding and across the top story ceiling. The window jambs are caulked, there is a beam fill at the foundation line.

The other house, the one that burns forty per cent more coal, probably has no insulation in its walls or roof, windows may be poorly fitted and uncaulked, foundation and framing are probably not well protected.

BUSS MAKES PIANO MOVING SPECIALTY

Transfer Company Equipped to Do Any Kind of Hauling and Moving

Piano moving is the specialty of the Emil A. Buss Transfer Co., 514 Hancock-st. Pianos, many of them weighing as much as 1,600 pounds, are moved almost every day.

Mr. Buss uses trucks because they give better service, although at one time he used horses, entirely. Trucks enable him to carry larger loads and transport it with greater speed. Nevertheless he has a team. Horses still are necessary because all kinds of work cannot be done by truck. Mr. Buss' work involves moving garages and houses. A truck cannot be used for this sort of work, while a good team makes it easy.

Mr. Buss does both local and long distance hauling, doing quite a large business throughout the Fox River valley from Green Bay to Fond du Lac. He has made many trips to Chicago and some to neighboring states. He has made trips up which he was gone so long that he was unable to handle local trucking for an entire week.

Mr. Buss has been in the trucking business for five years. He has two large trucks and will make hauls anywhere in the country. His trucks are equipped with all the latest improvements which make trucking easier and quicker.

LETTER FROM EDGERTON SANTLEY TO MRS. RUTH ELLINGTON

MY DEAR MRS. ELLINGTON: I thought perhaps you might be interested in knowing that I have received a long letter from our mutual friend, Walter Burke, in which he tells me that he will probably be in this country not later than the middle of next month. He asks me if I have seen you since I came over, and I told him that business had kept that delightful occurrence in anticipation. I saw you friend, Mrs. John Alden Prescott, here in the hotel the other day and was introduced to her charming father and mother. I also renewed acquaintance with her sister, Miss Alice, and her fiancé, Mr. Whitney. I am afraid Miss Alice will never make the lovely woman that her sister is. She has that great defect of so many American girls—she wants the center of the stage all the while, and is petulant and unhappy when she doesn't have it.

I hear you saying that no man but an Englishman could be as rude and gruff as to make the foregoing remark. I hope to see you soon, my dear Mrs. Ellington, for I shall surely come over with Walter if not before. Until then believe me,

Sincerely yours,
EDGERTON SANTLEY.

Telegram From Mrs. Joseph Graves Hamilton to Sally Atherton.

Am glad you are so sensible about the row. Am sending it to you today. Mr. Hamilton sends his affectionate regards.

ALICE HAMILTON.

Night Letter From John Alden Prescott to Mrs. John Alden Prescott.

Don't want to hurry your visit but am getting awfully lonely. I haven't been able to give mother much attention either. I need you to fill in the gaps. Had Ruth and Mrs. Atherton to dinner the other night. They didn't like each other. Women are queer. Go to the Nore-Such Cigarette contract, Milton and a half. Come on home and help me celebrate. Syd will be here next week. Says he is walking only with a cane. Come home soon, dear, but until I see you don't forget for a moment that I love you.

JACK.

Wire From Ruth Ellington to Leslie Prescott

Invoice of goods received. Think I'll make you buyer for the establishment. They seem to be prettier and cheaper than anything I have been able to get. Anxiously awaiting your coming. Have much to say to you. Much love,

RUTH.

Wire From Sydney Carton to John Alden Prescott

Coming up next week. Watch your step. Don't give any more parties for lovely ladies who flip your curiosity even with your mother as chaperone. Take my advice for I know what I'm talking about. SYD.

Pails Lead League in Field

Averages.

Final compilation of State league records shows the Appleton club third in both fielding and hitting, with the Pails and Chairs ahead of them in both departments. The Chairs climbed over the Menasha-Neehan team in stickwork during the last month of the season, however, but the Twin City tribe still maintains its superiority in the other department.

Sylvester and Ambly Weisgerber are tied for fielding honors on the Appleton club with an average of .962, but Eddie Weisgerber is the only Papermaker regular with a perfect record. Les Smith and his brother Ted have the highest averages among the Appleton veterans. Les was hitting at a .355 clip with Red close behind with a .344 average. Scheleske of the Pails is the heaviest hitter of the league, according to the records, which give him a .406 average.

The club and individual averages follow:

DULUTH EXPECTS CAPACITY CROWD
AT PACKER GAME

Green Bay Pro Gridders Considered Most Important Rivals of Kelleys

Duluth—The Green Bay Packers and Duluth Kelleys clash here Sunday afternoon at Athletic park in a National Football league game. A capacity crowd is expected as the Packers are considered one of the best gate attractions in the Pro gridiron world.

The Duluth club considers the Packer game the most important on the schedule and the team has been practicing every day this week to be at top speed so as to turn back the champions of the Northwest.

The Packers have an all star line up and some of their players are considered the equal of any in post gridiron football. Cub Buck, Curley Lambeau and Tillie Voss are among the stars who will appear here with the visitors in Sunday's game.

Halsey Hall, sport editor of the St. Paul Pioneer-Press will referee. Von of Duluth is the umpire and Coffey of Beloit has been named as head-lineman.

The probable line up follows:

PIRATES COP TWO IN FINAL SERIES

Pittsburgh—Returning from their disastrous eastern trip during which they were eliminated as a pennant contender, the Pittsburgh Pirates took both games of a double header at Chicago Friday in the final series of the season. The scores were 9 to 3 and 10 to 6. The Pirates won the first game with ease, holding the Cubs scoreless until the seventh inning, while they piled up a commanding lead behind Kremer who struck out six Chicago batters. Don Songer a recruit, recently obtained from Oklahoma City, made his first major league start in the second game. The Cubs bombarded him in the second and fifth innings, scoring all their runs off his delivery. Pfeiffer relieved Songer in the fifth after four runs had been scored, and held the Cubs safe the remainder of the game. In the second game, Miller put the ball over the fence for a home run. Wright also hit a home run in the game with one man on base.

STATE LEAGUERS
MEET INVASION OF
BREWERS ON OCT. 1

Representative Club of McGillan Loop Will Battle Big Time Outfits

Baseball fans of the Fox River valley will have a chance to see the representative club of the Wisconsin State league in action against a big time team when the Milwaukee Brewers invade Menasha on Wednesday, Oct. 1. The Pails have journeyed to LaCrosse where they will play three games, weather permitting. "Big Dave" Davenport was to work in the Saturday game, and Smith and Noble in the Sunday games. These contests will keep the Pails on edge for the Brewer tilt, which the Menasha-Neehan club is very eager to win, in order to assure a large gate at the Cleveland American battle at Oshkosh on Oct. 5.

The Madison Blues are not satisfied that the Pails are the better club and have arranged another game for Oct. 4, at Menasha. This should be a hard battle as both teams now have four games to their credit and have played two ties.

Only one change has been made in the Brewer lineup for the Wednesday tilt, and the team has not been weakened by it. The big leaguers will line up as follows: Richbourg or Lober in right field Griffin at first Stroum at second, Magee in center-field, Johnson left field, McMenemy behind the bat and either Schack, Lingrel, Walbergand or Eddleman on the mound.

Worden of the Menasha-Neehan club leads the state league in home runs with one over Leopold, and should be able to meet some of the offerings dished out to him by the big fellows. He, together with such hitters as Leopold, Muench, Cissa and Wurth often are better able to hit a good pitcher than a mediocre one. As far as fielding goes the Pails have little to fear for they have demonstrated their ability on many previous occasions.

SMITH WINS PLACE IN TENNIS FINALS

B. F. Smith Friday afternoon eliminated C. L. Bachelder in the semi-finals of the Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament here when he took two out of three games. Smith won the first, 6-0, but Bachelder came back in the second and won, 5-6. The third went to Smith, 6-2, which gave him the match.

Ed Kietris drew a bye in the drawings for the finals and will play Smith for the championship early next week.

Owing to the membership drive now in progress, the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium will be closed next week. The showers and pool will remain open as usual.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Sammy Mandell, Illinois lightweight, won a decision over Frankie Burns, Oakland, in four rounds.

Yanks Draw Closer To Senators Who Bow To
Boston Red Sox, 2 To 1

New York Team Defeats Athletics, 7 to 1, While Johnson's Injury Gives Washington Severe Blow.

Boston—Washington's pennant aspirations received a rude jolt Friday when Ferguson pitched Boston to a 2 to 1 victory over the Senators in the first game of four scheduled to be played here. New York's victory while Washington lost reduced the Senators' lead in the pennant race to one full game. The league leaders made only seven hits.

JOHNSON INJURED

Another blow to Washington hopes came when Walter Johnson, the club's pitching ace, was hit on the left elbow by a pitched ball in the fifth and apparently severely injured. Marberry pitched the eighth inning against Boston. After thirteen consecutive victories Johnson figured as a losing pitcher. In the fifth, Veatch, with one out, scratched a hit through Stanley Harris and went to third when Boone singled sharply to center. Joe Harris' Texas leaguer to short center brought the score. Ezzel forced Harris, but Lee's long single to left center led Boone in with what proved to be the winning run.

Washington's single run came in the eighth. Ruel opened with a single beyond shortstop. Liebold batted for Johnson and batted rapidly to Ferguson, whose throw to Lee forced Ruel. The latter prevented Lee from making a throw to first. Wade Leber went in as a pinch hitter for McNeely and his double to left center led Liebold score from first. Stanley Harris and Rice were infield out, however, and the Washington rally was over.

HAD GOOD CHANCES

There were two other occasions when the Senators had chances to satisfy the crowd of 12,000 which called repeatedly for a Washington victory. In the second, with but one out, Judge doubled and Bluege got an infield single, but Peckinpaugh was called out on strikes and Ferguson threw out Ruel. Again in the ninth, with two out, Bluege singled and went to third on Peck's single to right. Peck was caught between second and first for the final out. Veatch made two hits off Johnson and one off Marberry. After hitting safely in thirty-one consecutive games, Sam Rice went hitless today.

Yanks 7, Athletics 1

Philadelphia — Their backs to the wall and fighting desperately in the hope of overtaking the Washington Senators, New York pounded its way to victory Friday when Philadelphia's defense weakened in the fifth inning. The final score was 7 to 1. For four innings Texas Gray baffled the Yankees' attempts to break through his delivery and was retiring them in order on easy popups and puny grounders. But Pennock was sailing along just as smoothly and though the Athletics managed to get men on base in each of the first three innings, they were unable to come through with the hits in the pinches. The score:

ACCEPTS CALL TO ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Oconomowoc Rector Will Assume Charge of Appleton Church on Oct. 15

The Rev. C. A. Wilson, rector of the Episcopal church at Oconomowoc for nine years, has accepted the call of the vestry of All Saints church of Appleton and will take charge of the local parish on Oct. 15. Father Wilson was stationed at Baraboo for seven years before going to Oconomowoc. The Baraboo parish wished him to return and his parishoners at Oconomowoc made a strong effort to retain him.

Father Wilson succeeds the Rev. P. O. Ketcher who resigned the rectorship to become county executive for the Fox River valley. Since his resignation the congregation has been served by the former rector's father and by other priests sent here to conduct services.

LIZZIE COULDN'T MAKE 40 MILES SO OWNER GOES FREE

Driver Arrested for Speeding Knew How Fast His Pet Could Travel

Judge A. M. Spencer made a bargain with an alleged speeder apprehended by Wilbur Bogan, county motorcycle officer, and the judge made good his part of the bargain, but it cannot be said that the third party in the case, the motorcop, is exactly satisfied.

William Wunderlich of Ellington, was charged with speeding 45 miles an hour on a Grand Chase road. Now Wunderlich owns a Ford coupe in gear and he claimed to know the "capacity" of it.

"If that car can make 40 miles an hour, 'I'll be glad to pay the fine,'" Other motorists before him, even drivers of Fords, had made the same statement, but backed out when the judge took them up on their bargain. But Wunderlich did not back out. Officer Jack Ewald was gotten out to test the speed of the car. He said he made 34 miles an hour with it. Then Officers Albert Deligan of the Appleton police force was directed to test it. He made 35 miles and after he had the engine warmed up he got 37 miles. It was the most he could do with it, he said. The result was that Wunderlich was dismissed, and the defendant discharged from custody.

Bogan is of the opinion that cars not reputed to be fast can go very fast under certain conditions.

JEWISH FESTIVALS START ON MONDAY

Special Services Are to Be Held in Synagogs in Appleton

The holy days of the Jews are at hand. Tishri 1, 5655, the Jewish New Year, falls on Monday. From Sunday night until Sh'mini Atzereth, the conclusion festival, Oct. 19, the Jewish churches of Milwaukee will conduct services to observe the succession of feasts and holy days.

Rosh Hashonah, New Year's day, is the first. It occurs Sept. 29. Shabbas Shuvah, the sabbath of the return, is the Friday following.

HARVEST FEAST OCT. 12
Yom Ha-Kippurim, the day of atonement, is Oct. 8. Sukkoth, the harvest and thanksgiving feast, is Oct. 12. Sh'mini Atzereth, the conclusion festival, Oct. 19, will be followed by Simchas Thora, a day of rejoicing over the law, Oct. 20.

All Jewish holidays start at sundown the day before, because in the story of the creation evening preceded morning of the first day.

Appleton Jews will observe their holy days starting Sunday evening, Sept. 28.

New Year services will be held at the Moses Montefiore temple, at the corner of Bateman and Atlantis-sts. Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Monday morning, from 7 to 12 o'clock. Men's services will be held Tuesday morning from 7 to 12 o'clock. Atonement services will be held Tuesday evening, Oct. 7, at 8 o'clock, and all day Wednesday starting at 7 o'clock. Rabbi A. Zussman will conduct all services.

Services for the New Year will be held at Zion temple, corner of Durkee and Harris-sts. Sunday evening at 7:30, and Monday morning from 10:30 to 12 o'clock. Atonement services will be held Tuesday evening, Oct. 7, at 7 o'clock, and all day Wednesday starting at 9:30 in the morning. Rabbi Joshua Liebmann of Cincinnati will be in charge.

"Y" Membership Card Is Good All Over World

Membership in the Y. M. C. A. in Appleton carries with it considerable value to anybody who travels or might take a journey, for it admits one to all associations and the use of their privileges no matter what part of the world the institution might be in.

George F. Werner, general secretary and Alden Behnke are among the Appleton members who will declare that a "Y" membership is a decided advantage to the traveler. Both had occasion to use their cards while in Europe and found not only a cordial welcome but favors and courtesies beyond expectation.

Mr. Behnke was one of a group of young men who traveled through Europe several months ago on a tour arranged by the International Y. M. C. A. He says of his experiences in foreign associations:

EVERYTHING ARRANGED
"While touring Europe this summer, our party was entertained and our activities supervised by the Y. M. C. A. The men in charge of each of the national organizations had our programs arranged for us when we arrived, and under their leadership, these programs were carried out as scheduled. Foreign secretaries made it possible for us to get into private homes, often entertaining us in their own places of residence. In many of the countries, the national committees honored us with sumptuous banquets and speeches of hearty welcome.

"Not only did they arrange an unusual and varied program, which was the result of study of what a group of American boys would especially enjoy, but through their organization and influence, we were admitted to places not open to other tourists and we met noted individuals inaccessible to the general public.

STRONG IN EUROPE

"We found the Y. M. C. A. very strong and active in Holland and the Scandinavian countries. In these countries, the association is closely allied with the church. In Roskilde, Denmark, the minister of the historic Roskilde cathedral, where most of the Danish kings and queens are buried, is also the general secretary of the 'Y'. Here again, as in many other instances, a special privilege, that of visiting the unfinished chapel of Frederick VIII. This chapel was not even open to Danish visitors.

"We returned with a renewed faith in Y. M. C. A. work and a fuller appreciation of its great international enterprise."

"A member of the Appleton Y. M. C. A. is welcomed in any in America or an foreign country and a membership ticket is good for its face value anywhere," declares Mr. Werner. "Members repeatedly report courtesies shown them by Y. M. C. A.'s in other cities. Practically every city on importance now has a Y. M. C. A. open day and evening where visiting members can get all the privileges they get at home.

"When I made a trip through Europe I carried a ticket from the Milwaukee Y. M. C. A. and was given all privileges in associations in England, France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Italy.

"The display of 300 picture postcards in the Y. M. C. A. lobby here showing 'Y' buildings all over the world illustrates how popular the Y. M. C. A. is and how valuable a membership is to a traveler."

BEFORE BABIES WERE BORN

Mrs. Oswald Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Girardville, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my last two babies came. It keeps me in perfect health and I am on my feet getting meals and doing all my housework until an hour before the baby is born. A friend told me to take it and I have used ten bottles since I heard about it. I recommend the Vegetable Compound whenever I can. Just yesterday a friend was telling me how miserable she felt, and I said, 'If you start taking Lydia E. Pinkham's you will feel fine.' Now she is taking it."

Mrs. P. J. OSWALD, JR., 406 West Ogden St., Girardville, Pa.

Mrs. Nicola Paluzzi Says
Mishawaka, Indiana.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness before my babies were born. I was weak and tired out all the time and it helped me. When I had inward inflammation the doctor treated me, but did not help me, so I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and it helped me at once." — Mrs. NICOLA PALUZZI, 415 E. Broadway, Mishawaka, Indiana.

Permanence Costs Less Than Paint

The Minneapolis Journal, last year, built two demonstration houses. One was of frame construction, the other was of Concrete Masonry Units.

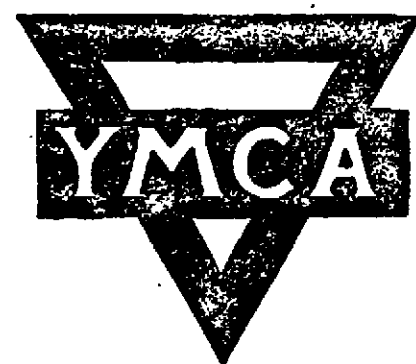

The two houses were practically identical in size and design.

Careful cost records were kept and the Concrete Masonry house cost only $177.64 (3.8 per cent) more than the frame — less than a painter would ask to paint the average frame house.

The Concrete Masonry house is permanent, firesafe and will not need upkeep or repair.

Shopping at Pettibone's
Is Shopping in the Cities

SHOPPING AT PETTIBONE'S has all the advantages, and few of the annoyances, of shopping in the many stores of Larger Cities. This Store buys its stocks in the same way that the Largest Stores do. Pettibone's is one of the few stores in smaller cities that maintains a permanent New York City buying office. This office is constantly there—looking daily for new and special items that should be in Appleton. Pettibone's department heads are constantly travelling back and forth between the Store and the wholesale markets. The receiving room is daily stacked with the purchases that these buyers have been able to secure. New things are constantly arriving. The Pettibone stocks are constantly interesting — constantly new — continually Opportunity Priced. The purchasing power of This Store has been joined with that of eight other equally large and larger institutions to buy goods at Lower Prices—and sell them Lower Priced.

Pettibone's Many Special Services Are Steadily Increasing to All Customers

Pettibone's Customers live in Appleton and in the cities and towns of central and northern Wisconsin and northern Michigan. Our lists of out-of-town customers includes more than TWENTY THOUSAND. The Store's services are offered equally to Appleton shoppers and to those at a distance.

Of special interest to out-of-town shoppers is the Jane Spencer personal service bureau. This section handles all of our mail order inquiries. Letter orders are placed in the hands of experienced shoppers—young women who do nothing else—and are as carefully purchased as if the customer herself was at the counter.

Constant effort is being made to extend our services in new directions.
